DAGENHAM PLAN TO CREATE 1,300 JOBS

PLANS to transform a landmark site in Dagenham could bring a jobs boost to the area.

More than 1,300 roles could be created once pharmaceutical giant Sanofi leaves the old May and Baker site in 2013.

Proposals for the site, which covers 108 acres from Rainham Road South to Dagenham Road, include a firefighters' training centre, a large health centre with dental facilities and a supermarket.

Some of Sanofi's manufacturing buildings will also remain for new businesses to use.

One of the proposals is for the May and Baker Sports and Social Club to remain.

The sports facilities, which make up almost half the site, would be run by a Trust made up of representatives from Barking and Dagenham Council, the club itself, Dagenham and Redbridge FC and Eastbrook School, whose grounds border Sanofi.

Plans are already underway for the fire training college, which will provide 125 skilled jobs in a state-of-the-art building.

More than 80 people attended a second public meeting last Thursday to discuss the plans.

Foxlands Road resident Leslie Bird said: "Not everyone wants a supermarket, but that is the price we are paying to have things like the sports facilities, as there is less money to be made from keeping them."

"My son plays for Goresbrook Cricket Club, which is based there, so as long as the youth teams stay, it's great for young people."

Some people raised concerns about the volume of traffic if a big supermarket opens on the site, and how the store would affect local businesses.

Gerald Bowles, from Mayswood

Gardens, said: "The traffic is a problem around here."

"It's basically a rat-run to the A13 and I think the majority don't want a supermarket because the roads will be even busier."

"Saying that, we are lucky to keep the sports facilities as we could have had a grim housing estate."

Sanofi bosses are in talks with at least three major organisations interested in buying land on the site.

A planning application for 'business east' will be submitted to the council before the end of the year.

Meeting the Mayor

A MALAYSIAN student attacked during the riots in Barking in August enjoyed a special reception with the Mayor.

Muhammad Asyraf Haziq Rosli had been in the borough for a month when the violence broke out. He was filmed being helped to his feet by an apparent good Samaritan, only for the 'helper' to then steal items from his bag.

The 20-year-old enjoyed tea and cake with the mayor, Milton McKenzie MBE.

Rubbish cleared

RESIDENTS and council staff cleared more than 14 tonnes of waste from homes in and around Third Avenue in Dagenham last Friday.

People were able to throw out large items such as sofas, which the council collected.

Members of the Dagenham-based Osborne Partnership also worked with council staff and local police at a litter-picking relay.

Family conference

PARENTS and carers can have their say on the borough's family services.

The Parents and Carers Conference will take place on Saturday, October 22, during National Parents' Week.

The event is at Castle Green, in Gale Street, Dagenham. It runs from 9.30am to 4pm and a creche is available.

To book your place, call Marina Shaftoe on 020 8227 5523 or e-mail marina.shaftoe@lbbd.gov.uk

Officers hand out free safety advice

By Peter Henn

POLICE officers have been helping residents from across Barking & Dagenham to protect themselves from crime.

Police teams have been out and about in the borough promoting National Personal Safety Week, and handing out personal attack alarms, purse bells, lamp timers and safety literature.

They have also been handing out advice on how residents can stay safe and avoid robberies, pickpockets, violence and other crime.

One of the borough's safest stars is Sergeant Chris Hobro, of Alibon ward Safer Neighbourhood Team.

He is set to be given the 25th anniversary Safety Award by the Suzy Lamplugh Trust after carrying out a sponsored parachute jump last year.

He said: "National Personal Safety Week appeals to all of my natural priorities – it incorporates community, charity, and the promotion of safety."

"Both myself and my team have thoroughly enjoyed our involvement with the scheme, and to be presented with the award really is the icing on the cake."

Chambers, who pleaded guilty to arson with intent to endanger six lives, received an indeterminate sentence.

Usman, who was found guilty of recklessly starting a fire after a trial, was jailed for four years.

Olympic Stadium plans falter

WEST Ham's bid with Newham Council to purchase the Olympic Stadium for use after the 2012 Games has hit a massive stumbling block.

The Government and the Mayor of London confirmed on Tuesday that they have ended the process to sell the stadium because it had become 'bogged down' in legal challenges.

Rival London football clubs Tottenham Hotspur and Leyton Orient both launched their own battles to overturn the decision to award the stadium to the Hammers, while an anonymous complaint was also made to the European Commission.

The stadium will now be retained as a public asset and the process to find a new tenant is now underway.

Athletics will remain at the heart of the facility – as promised as part of the 2017 World Athletics Championship bid – but the Olympic Park Legacy Company will also seek leasehold football tenants.

West Ham remain favourites to fill that position.

Minister for sport and the Olympics, Hugh Robertson, said: "The Government is committed to securing a legacy from the Olympic Stadium and wants to see it re-opening in 2014.

"We are acting to end the legal paralysis that has put that legacy at risk. Ending the current sale process and looking for a leasehold solution will remove the current uncertainty and allows us to help secure the future use of the stadium with more confidence."

West Ham's vice chairman, Karen Brady, and Newham Council's chief executive, Kim Bromley-Derry, issued a joint statement confirming they remain united in the process.

They said: "We welcome the move by OPLC and Government to end the uncertainty and allow a football and athletics stadium to be in place by 2014.

"West Ham will look to become a tenant of the stadium while Newham will aim to help deliver the legacy.

"Our bid is the only one that will secure the sporting and community legacy promise of the Olympic Stadium – an amazing year-round home for football, athletics and community events of which the nation could be proud."

GRAND: The Olympic Stadium will be retained as a public asset.

Decision welcomed by Leyton Orient

THE decision to break off negotiations to sell the Olympic Stadium to West Ham United has been met warmly by Leyton Orient and UK Athletics.

O's chairman Barry Hearn had been extremely vocal about his dislike for the proposal and is claiming this week's announcement as a victory for his club.

The boxing promoter said: "For this whole case, Leyton Orient has been beating up West Ham and Newham and landing punches.

"They were taking a beating, we were well ahead on points and about to knock them out when OPLC and the Government threw in the towel.

"This entirely vindicates the legal action taken by us to protect the future of the club in Leyton.

"The decision by the OPLC to award the stadium to West Ham was fundamentally flawed. We were telling everyone, but no one was listening to us.

"The expert witness evidence submitted to the parties by our solicitors, Mishcon de Reya, last week in the course of the Judicial Review process appears to have been the moment when it dawned upon Newham and the OPLC that this was the case and now they will have to think again."

Mr Hearn said Orient would now be seeking an order for the payment of its costs of fighting the case. He also urged Government to think hard about what it wants to achieve from the stadium before starting another tender process.

"The 2012 Olympics is going to be a great spectacle and everyone is hugely excited about the Games," he added.

"However, the stadium as designed and now built is a white elephant in terms of its legacy."

Ed Warner, chairman of UK Athletics, was pleased to hear his sport will be more catered for by the stadium in legacy mode.

He said: "This decision has provided absolute clarity for everyone involved. It guarantees the athletics legacy pledged as part of our Olympic bid, and ensures the stadium will be able to host world class athletics from the summer of 2014.

"The plans for the stadium remain unaltered. It will be remodelled as a 60,000-seat arena, fully roofed, with an adjacent warm-up track.

"It would be a central part of an integrated legacy strategy that will benefit British sport for generations to come."

Cadets help shoppers travel safely on buses

POLICE cadets have been showing people how to travel safely on the buses at night. They spent four hours with the Safer Transport Policing Team and shoppers at Sainsbury's, in High Road, Chadwell Heath, earlier this month.

Purse chains were handed out, as well as advice on the pitfalls of using unlicensed cabs and planning journeys.

Top tips included:

- Having your ticket/Oyster/money ready, and keeping your bag zipped and valuables secure.
- Using the passenger alarms if you are feeling threatened.
- Nervous passengers should make a point of sitting on the lower deck near the bus driver.

Sergeant Ian Lee said: "Our cadets worked hard to get bus travellers thinking about what makes them vulnerable. "They pointed out the simple precautions commuters can take to significantly reduce their chances of becoming a victim of crime."

Two sentenced for attack

TWO young men have been sentenced at Snaresbrook Crown Court for grievous bodily harm (GBH).

The court case was a result of Operation Connect, the Met's unit dedicated to tackling violence driven by gang culture.

Monsur Zaman, 20, from Waltham Forest, was sentenced to 18 months imprisonment for GBH and four months for possession of an offensive weapon, with the sentences to run concurrently.

Eren Mehmet, 18, also from Waltham Forest, was sentenced to two years in a young offenders institute (he was 17 at the time of the attack) following a violent assault in east London.

The court heard that on Friday, April 8, a 41-year-old man and a 43-year-old man, were in a pub in Leytonstone High Road.

At around 10pm, the victims left the pub then became aware of a group running towards them who then began to attack them.

One victim fell to the floor during the attack. He was repeatedly kicked, punched and hit with an assortment of weapons including an iron bar.

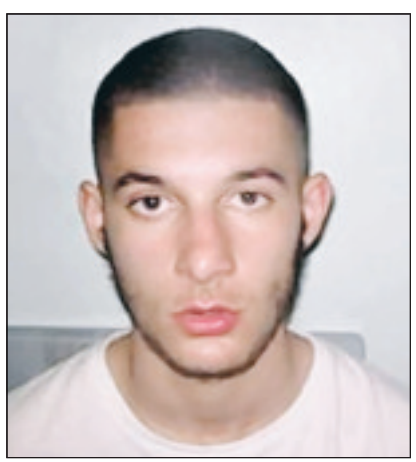

The second victim shouted at the group, hoping to frighten off the youths but they turned on him, too. Emergency services took both men to hospital.

One victim needed 18 stitches to his ear and the other received cuts to his face that also required stitches.

Detective Chief Inspector Tim Champion, from Operation Connect said: "This was a vicious attack by the pair which left lasting psychological and physical effects on their victims."

NICOLA Stananought was a fitting first big winner in a new hospice lottery.

The hard-working member of the team at St Francis Hospice and former Havering district nurse walked away with the inaugural £1,000 prize, when the lottery was drawn last Friday.

Nicola, who lives in Blackmore, was stunned by her win.

She said: "I was so shocked - I signed up for the lottery because it's a fun way to support such a great cause.

"I never dreamed I would ever win, let alone in the first week!

"My daughter, Amy, has just started school so we'd like to use our winnings to have a relaxing holiday during half-term. It's lovely to be able to have this unexpected treat!"

Anita, from Hutton, has supported the hospice since 2003 after her brother Keith was cared for there.

Hospice medical director, Dr Corinna Midgely added: "I'm thrilled for Nicola and Anita."

For more information about the hospice lottery or to sign up, call 01708 771433 or visit www.sfh.org.uk

Orders are accepted by the Publishers subject to the Standard Conditions agreed between the Newspaper Society and the Institute of Practitioners in Advertising. Save that:

1. Advertisements are accepted on the conditions that (a) descriptions relating to goods are accurate and in no way contravene the provisions of the Trade Descriptions Act 1968, and the Fair Trading Act 1973, and (b) the copy complies with the British Code of Advertising Practice. Advertisements offering credit or hire facilities must conform to the Consumer Credit (Advertisements) Regulations 1980.

2. 'Classified' Advertisers offering goods or service of a business, commercial or trade nature will, at the discretion of the Publishers, be deemed 'Trade Advertisers', and as such, must include their names in advertisements. A telephone number is an optional addition to these requirements and not an alternative.

To comply with the Business Advertisements (Disclosure) Order 1977, Trade Advertisers must make it clear that they are selling goods in the course of business either by content, format, size or place of the advertisement or by including words such as 'trade', 'dealer', 'agent', 'wholesaler', '(T)' etc. in the advertisement.

3. The Publishers accept no liability whatsoever for any loss or damage howsoever caused arising out of:

- (b) Any failure to publish an advertisement on the day / date or day / dates specified by the advertiser; or
- (c) Any delay in forwarding or omission to forward replies to box numbers to the Advertiser.

4. The Publishers will endeavour to publish advertisements on the day / date or day / dates specified by the Advertiser but insertion days / dates cannot be guaranteed.

5. Where shrinkage of advertisement occurs for whatever reasons the advertisement will be charged to the nearest full centimetre. This will NOT apply to the full-page advertisements, which remain full pages even after shrinkage.

6. The Publishers reserve the right to reject an advertisement or to vary it in any way they deem fit, at any time before publication, whether or not the advertisement has already been accepted for publication.

7. Wherever effort is made to minimise errors in advertisements, mistakes do sometimes occur. Advertisers or their agents should therefore check their advertisements and inform us of any errors immediately. Responsibility cannot be accepted for more than one incorrect insertion. Typographical or minor changes, which do not affect the value of the advertisement, do not qualify for republication or allowances.

8. All gross advertising rates (except classified lineage and semi-display) are subject to and include a 0.1% Advertising Standards Board of Finance surcharge, payable by the advertisers to help finance the self-regulatory control system administered by the Advertising Standards Authority.

9. All rates quoted are subject to VAT at the rate currently in force at the time the advertisement appears.

10. Should the rate for advertisements be altered the price for remaining insertions shall be revised accordingly or the publishers shall have the right to cancel the unexpired portion of the order.

11. The placing of an advertisement order will be deemed an acceptance of these conditions.

12. Account facilities are granted at the discretion of the Company.

13. All accounts must be settled within the terms agreed by the Company and the Customer.

(1) Should an advertiser be in breach of the agreed terms, the publisher shall be entitled to levy a 10% surcharge on the value of the whole debt in respect of accounts with terms of less than 30 days, and any discounts or commissions that had been allowed will be reclaimed.

(2) Regular monthly accounts that are in breach of the agreed terms will pay an interest rate of 8% above the current bank of England base rate for each month that the account is overdue and discounts or commissions that had been allowed will be reclaimed. Should Legal action be required the interest will be charged in accordance with the County Court Act 1984.
